Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 0400 on Monday 13 Dec 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mild, rather cloudy, but mostly dry.

Today:
Generally dry but rather cloudy. Some brighter spells likely at times however, particularly in the south and east, and feeling mild with lighter winds through the day. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Tonight:
Outbreaks of rain and drizzle spreading slowly across the region through the evening and overnight. Largely cloudy and this lowering to give some murky conditions with fog in places. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Tuesday:
Becoming drier on Tuesday. Any early fog clearing into the afternoon as winds freshen somewhat but skies remain largely cloudy. Feeling generally mild. Maximum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Largely dry but looking to stay rather cloudy throughout. Some overnight mist or fog possible. Very mild for December.
